

BETHLEHEM PARADES

Bethlehem has long enjoyed parades. The first two photos are of a parade at the Four Corners from about 1920. If you look closely, you might recognize the buildings on Delaware Avenue where First Care and Andriano's are located today. The third depicts a float from the 350th anniversary, in 1959, of Henry Hudson's historic voyage. The buildings in the background are recognizable today at the corner of Delaware and Kenwood.
