

» Don't Zone Out...

The Town of Bethlehem is updating its zoning & subdivision regulations and we need your input!

PUBLIC WORKSHOP #1 | MAY 31ST @ 6:00 PM

TOWN HALL AUDITORIUM

445 DELAWARE AVENUE, DELMAR, NY 12054

Join us for the first public workshop of the Town's code update effort! The meeting will begin with a brief presentation on the project scope and process, introduction to land use and smart growth principles, and launch of a visual community preference survey.

Attendees will also have an opportunity to visit activity stations to discuss and provide feedback on key topic areas including land use, natural resources, and clean energy.

We hope to see you there!
